INTRODUCTION:

In most regions around the world, including Australia, it is illegal for any person (or company) to ask two or more persons to invest in a shared business venture, property or other investment, without complying with legal rules set down by the relevant Corporate Regulator.

We have developed a unique and legally compliant Internet-based private securities trading exchange platform known as a Private Trading Exchange, or PTX.

A PTX may be purchased by a company (the Applicant) that has issued, or proposes to issue, securities in order to raise funds from investors.

A PTX may also be purchased by an accountant, solicitor, or other advisor (the Applicant) that acts on behalf of multiple companies that have issued, or propose to issue, securities in order to raise funds from investors.
